PLEASE CAREFULLY READ THE SEPARATE HEALTH AND SAFETY PRECAUTIONS BOOKLET INCLUDED WITH THIS PRODUCT BEFORE USING YOUR NINTENDO® HARDWARE SYSTEM, GAME CARD OR ACCESSORY. THIS BOOKLET CONTAINS IMPORTANT HEALTH AND SAFETY INFORMATION.

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION: READ THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS BEFORE YOU OR YOUR CHILD PLAY VIDEO GAMES.

WARNING - Seizures

- . Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or blackouts triggered by light flashes or patterns, such as while watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.
- · Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.
- · Parents should watch when their children play video games. Stop playing and consult a doctor if you or your child have any of the following symptoms: Eve or muscle twitching

Convulsions Altered vision Involuntary movements Loss of awareness Disorientation

- . To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:
 - 1. Sit or stand as far from the screen as possible. 2. Play video games on the smallest available television screen.

 - 3. Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
 - 4. Play in a well-lit room.
 - 5. Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

WARNING - Radio Frequency Interference

The Nintendo DS can emit radio waves that can affect the operation of nearby electronics, including cardiac pacemakers.

- . Do not operate the Nintendo DS within 9 inches of a pacemaker while using the wireless feature.
- · If you have a pacemaker or other implanted medical device, do not use the wireless feature of the Nintendo DS without first consulting your doctor or the manufacturer of your medical device.
- · Observe and follow all regulations and rules regarding use of wireless devices in locations such as hospitals, airports, and on board aircraft. Operation in those locations may interfere with or cause malfunctions of equipment, with resulting injuries to persons or damage to property.

WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries and Eyestrain

Playing video games can make your muscles, joints, skin or eyes hurt after a few hours. Follow these instructions to avoid problems such as tendinitis, carpal tunnel syndrome, skin irritation or eyestrain:

- Avoid excessive play. It is recommended that parents monitor their children for appropriate play.
- . Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don't think you need it.
- . When using the stylus, you do not need to grip it tightly or press it hard against the screen. Doing so may cause fatigue or discomfort.
- . If your hands, wrists, arms or eyes become tired or sore while playing, stop and rest them for several hours before playing again.
- . If you continue to have sore hands, wrists, arms or eyes during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

WARNING - Battery Leakage

The Nintendo DS contains a rechargeable lithium ion battery pack. Leakage of ingredients contained within the battery pack, or the combustion products of the ingredients, can cause personal injury as well as damage to your Nintendo DS.

If battery leakage occurs, avoid contact with skin. If contact occurs, immediately wash thoroughly with soap and water. If liquid leaking from a battery pack comes into contact with your eyes, immediately flush thoroughly with water and see a doctor.

To avoid battery leakage:

- · Do not expose battery to excessive physical shock, vibration, or liquids.
- . Do not disassemble, attempt to repair or deform the battery.
- . Do not dispose of battery pack in a fire.
- . Do not touch the terminals of the battery, or cause a short between the terminals with a metal object.
- Do not peel or damage the battery label.

PROLOGUE

AN AGE WHEN MAGICK WAS COMMONPLACE AND AIRSHIPS PLIED THE SKIES...

"Purvama, the floating lands. In the border-skies they wait. Untrodden, unknown."

So the legend went. And the children who heard it turned their eyes to the sky, and dreamed.

The Cache of Glabados is the key, throwing wide the doors of fading memory.

There, above, an all but forgotten land—demesne of the winged ones.

DRAMATIS PERSONAE

PENELO HUME, 18 YEARS OLD

Vaan's childhood friend, always there to lend a helping hand—or a proper scolding. Penelo is ever the faithful navigator, even when Vaan strays off course in new (and alarming) ways.

HUME, 18 YEARS OLD

A young sky pirate whose journeys through Ivalice have taught him much. At last the captain of his own airship, Vaan travels the skies in search of adventure.

HUME, 10 YEARS OLD

An orphan living in Rabanastre's Lowtown, Kytes is one of Vaan's closest friends. Hoping to become a sky pirate himself, Kytes practices magick with single-minded determination.

FILO HUME, 11 YEARS OLD

Another orphan from Lowtown, Filo follows faithfully in Vaan's footsteps. She still bears the emotional scars of the war, but she doesn't let them interfere with her dream of becoming a sky pirate.

BANGAA, AGE UNKNOWN

A vile and ruthless headhunter who's been marked with a bounty on his own head. Ba'Gamnan still carries a grudge against Vaan and his friends.

TOMAJ HUME, 19 YEARS OLD

An old hand from the Sandsea, a tavern in Rabanastre, Tomai collects information to help Vaan and the others on their adventure.

LLYUD AEGYL, 20 YEARS OLD

A warrior from the sky continent of Lemurés. He exhibits a curiosity not commonly found among the aegyl, for which he is regarded as something of a

HUME, AGE 23

Legendary sky pirate who flies his beloved airship, the Strahl, to the ends of Ivalice. He stepped from the limelight at the great war's end, keeping his whereabouts

Mysterious and quiet, as viera are wont to be. Fran shares a bond of unshakeable trust with her fellow sky pirate and partner, Balthier,

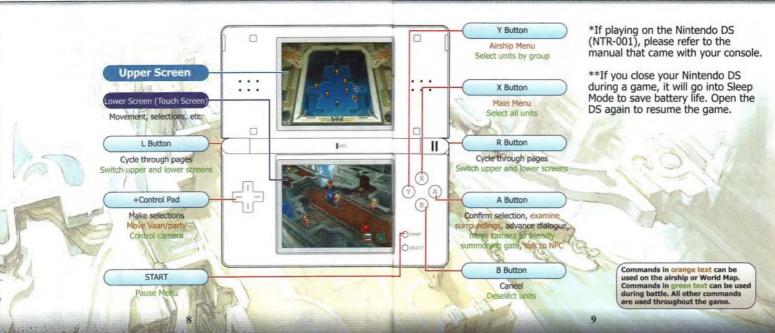

CONTROLS

You can control the game using both the stylus and the buttons. When both can be used to perform the same task, the controls using the stylus are given.

GETTING STARTED

Make sure the Nintendo DS is turned off before inserting the FINAL FANTASY XII REVENANT WINGS Game Card into your Nintendo DS.

1. When you turn on the Nintendo DS, the screen on the right will be displayed. After reading the message, tap on the Touch Screen to continue.

Touch "FINAL FANTASY XII REVENANT WINGS" on the DS Menu Screen or press the A Button to begin the game.

*If you set your DS to Auto-Start mode, this step is not necessary. Please see the Nintendo DS hardware manual for details.

A The Title Screen

Select "New Game" to play from the beginning of the story. Select "Continue" to continue play from a previously saved game.

Saving Your Progress

Select "Save" from the Main Menu (see page 20) or Battle Party Screen (see page 27) to save your progress. You will also be prompted to save your game after completing a battle. You can save your game to one of two slots.

PLAYING THE GAME

You can talk to your friends, purchase useful items and equipment, travel the World Map, and accept missions aboard the airship. Open the Main Menu to adjust your party's equipment and prepare for the battles ahead.

This is the party's base of operations. Here you can talk to your friends or purchase items to help you on your way.

*You can move directly from the airship's bridge to any mission posted on the notice board (see page 17).

Inventory

Espers

During battle, you can only summon Espers assigned to your active Esper troupe. You can have up to three Esper troupes, and you can assign Espers to each troupe as you see fit.

Each troupe can contain up to five different Espers.

Modifying Esper Troupes

Modifying a troupe is as simple as selecting an Esper for each slot in the troupe. Espers are ranked from I to III, and each slot can only hold Espers of a given rank or lower.

Nature

Touch the tabs at the top of the screen or press the L Button or R button to select Espers by their elemental nature.

Troupe Slots

As you forge pacts with higherranked Espers, the ranks of the slots in your Esper troupes also increase.

BEGINNING BATTLE

Move to a location on the World Map and select a mission to enter battle. Once you've selected your battle party and Esper troupe, battle begins.

Objectives

At the beginning of each battle, a list of objectives will appear. A battle is won once the objectives have been met. If any of the objectives are not met in the course of the battle, the battle is lost (see page 33). The objectives can change during battle, so pay careful attention.

Leaders & Groups

The party members you choose to send into battle are known as "leaders." Each leader can command up to 8 Espers at a time. A leader and his Espers are known as a "group." Leaders and Espers are both referred to as "units."

Battle Party Screen

Before battle, you must first select the characters and Esper troupe you wish to use. You can examine your enemy's leaders and Espers before making your selection. Touch "Begin" when you're ready to begin the battle.

Selecting Group Leaders

Touch "Leaders" to select the characters you wish to send into battle. Characters with a cicon cannot be removed from the battle party.

Selecting an Esper Troupe

Touch "Espers" to select the Esper troupe (see page 24) you wish to use in battle. You can also access the Ring of Pacts to forge new pacts (see page 23) or modify your Esper troupes from this screen

WAGING BATTLE

Select your units and give them a destination. When units reach their destination, they will automatically attack nearby enemies and harvest resources. Control your forces wisely to meet the battle objectives.

Selecting Units

There are various ways to select units. Some ways are more effective in certain situations. When a unit is selected, an HP gauge and a Θ icon will appear above its head.

*Touch or press the B Button to deselect units.

Selecting Single Units

Touch a unit with the stylus to select it.

Selecting Multiple Units

Dragging the stylus on the Touch Screen will cause a selection rectangle to appear. All units inside the rectangle will be selected.

Selecting Groups

Touch a leader's information tab or press the Y Button to select an entire group.

Touching a leader's information tab or pressing the Y Button repeatedly will select the leader and the leader's group in turn.

*Dragging down a leader's information tab will display the group's information in the lower screen, enabling you to select individual units in the group.

Selecting All Units

Press the X Button to select all friendly units on the battlefield.

Moving & Taking Actions

After selecting a unit, touch the location to which you'd like it to move. You can move a unit to any location displaying a icon. Moving a unit to locations displaying the below icons will cause it to automatically take certain actions.

Move a unit to an enemy unit to attack the targeted unit. Units will also automatically attack any nearby enemy units.

Friendly Units

Move a healing unit (see page 37) to a friendly unit to heal the targeted unit.

Summoning Gates

Move a leader to a summoning gate to capture the gate (see page 40).

Soul Crystals

After a short time, fallen leaders will automatically recover from being KO'd on maps containing soul crystals (pictured at right). You can attack enemy soul crystals (which are red) just as you would attack enemy units to destroy them.

Foraging Points

Move a leader to a foraging point to recover the group's HP.

*Time is required to recover HP. Using a foraging point repeatedly will eventually deplete it.

Scavenging Points

Move a leader to a scavenging point to gather the item it holds.

*Some scavenging points take time to gather.

Victory!

When the battle objectives are met, the battle is won, and the leaders are given experience points. Touch "Done" to exit the screen and view a list of items obtained in the course of the battle.

Defeat

If all of the battle objectives are not met, the battle is lost, and the leaders are given a token amount of experience. You are then prompted with the option to attempt the battle again. (All items obtained during the battle are lost.)

USING MAGICKS & ABILITIES

Units can use a variety of magicks and abilities which can even be automated by assigning them to gambits. When units have accumulated enough Mist Charge, they can also use quickening attacks.

2 Commands

Selecting a single unit brings up a list of commands at the bottom of the Touch Screen. Touch a command to select it.

Magicks & Abilities

Leaders and certain Espers can use magicks and abilities.
Select the magick or ability you'd like to use, then select a target. After using a magick or ability, a short amount of time must pass before it can be used again.

Dismiss

Selecting an Esper brings up the Dismiss command. Dismiss an Esper to remove it from the battlefield and free up Affinity (see page 41).

Gambits

By assigning a leader's magick or ability to a gambit, the unit will automatically use the assigned skill as the situation warrants. Each leader can have one active gambit. Select "Gambits" to assign the desired magick or ability.

The highlighted magick or ability is currently assigned to a gambit.

Quickenings

Quickenings are special abilities that leaders can learn as the game progresses. Quickenings require a full Mist Charge gauge to execute. Units gain Mist Charge as they deal and receive damage.

Mist Charge

Mist Charge Icon

When the Mist Charge gauge is full, the icon turns yellow.

Select "Quickenings" and a target for the quickening.

Quickenings have devastating effects that can change the tide of battle!

There are three types of unit, which act in a rock-paper-scissors relationship. Using these unit types effectively is the key to victory.

Melee Units

Healing Units

A subset of Ranged Units, Healing Units do not attack, instead healing their allies from a distance.

SUMMONING ESPERS

Espers are essential to victory on the battlefield. You'll need to use summoning gates and AP to realize their full potential.

Espers

You can summon any Esper assigned to your currently selected Esper troupe (see page 24) during battle to fight at your side. Espers have a variety of unit types and elemental natures. You can forge pacts to summon new Espers using the Ring of Pacts (see page 23).

Summoning Gates

You can summon Espers from friendly summoning gates on the battlefield. Summoning gates can be friendly, neutral, or hostile. Your enemies will use their summoning gates to summon Espers of their own, so approach with caution.

*Press the A Button to cycle

summoning gates.

At the start of battle, group leaders are assigned a certain number of Espers from the selected Esper troupe that matches the leaders' attack type.

Capturing Summoning Gates

Move a leader to a neutral or hostile summoning gate to capture it. It takes time to capture a gate, but the more leaders capturing a gate, the less time it will require.

Approach a neutral or hostile summoning gate.

As your leader captures the gate, the arrow on the gauge moves from right to left.

When the arrow reaches the left end of the gauge, the summoning gate is captured.

Summoning Menu

Touch a friendly summoning gate to open the Summoning Menu. Use the Summoning Menu to summon additional Espers or fortify your current Espers.

Summoning

When summoning Espers through a summoning gate, you must first select the leader to whose group the Esper will be assigned, and then select the Esper you wish to summon. Touch the Esper you wish to summon once more to add it to the summoning queue.

*Summoning takes time. You can only summon one Rank III Esper.

Esper Cost & Affinity

Each Esper costs a certain amount of

Affinity to summon. The total cost of all Espers summoned cannot exceed the available Affinity. Affinity is determined by the number of leaders in the battle party and number of friendly summoning gates on the battlefield.

*You recover Affinity when an Esper falls in battle or is removed using the "Dismiss" command.

Fortifying Espers

You can spend Astral Power (AP) to fortify your Espers, temporarily raising their level for the duration of the battle. To fortify an Esper, select "Fortify Esper" from the Summoning Menu, and then touch the Esper to be fortified. The AP gauge fills as time passes, up to a maximum of 5 AP.

AP needed to fortify the Esper

Summoning Queue

Select "Queue" from the Summoning Menu to view the Espers currently being summoned through the gate. You can touch an Esper twice to cancel the summoning.

The Esper at the left of the queue is currently being summoned. When the gauge beneath it fills, it will appear on the battlefield.
